Course Description and Objectives:

This course will introduce the learner to the texts of the Hebrew Scriptures--Torah, Prophets, and Writings--with emphasis on their order and contents, the historical and cultural settings from which they arise, their literary forms, their religious themes, and some of the kinds of interpretive approaches that communities of readers have taken since the advent of modernity.

Learning Goals:

- Students will develop basic historical understanding about the Hebrew Bible, the authors and settings of its writings, and its socio-cultural, political, and ideological environment in the ancient Near East.
- Students will gain acquaintance with interpretations from multiple perspectives.
- Students will acquire basic skills in exegesis of Hebrew-Bible texts.
- Students will develop skills in expressing and contextualizing what they have learned to broader audiences.

Required Textbooks:

- Robert E Goss and Mona West, eds. The Queer Bible Commentary. Second Edition. SCM Press, 2022. ISBN-13: 978-0334060789. ISBN-10: 0334060788. Amazon hardcover $82.85. Amazon Kindle $78.81.
- Michael Joseph Brown. What They Don't Tell You: A Survivor's Guide to Biblical Studies. Westminster John Knox Press, 2000. ISBN-13: 978-0664222208. ISBN-10: 066422220X. Amazon Paperback $38.96. Amazon Kindle $9.99.
- Common English Bible and Joel B. Green. The CEB Study Bible with Apocrypha. Common English Bible, 2018. ISBN-13: 978-1609262150. ISBN-10: 1609262158. Amazon hardcover $45.92. If you already own an NRSV Study Bible, such as the Harper Collins or New Interpreter's, you may use that instead. But please first contact the instructor by email to check in about what you've got. Thank you!

Delivery:

This course is in-person. Students will not be permitted to join by videoconference. If a student cannot commit to in-person sessions, they should instead take the online, asynchronous course (also offered this semester).

Accommodations Policy:

Garrett-Evangelical is committed to providing a quality theological education and will provide reasonable accommodations for documented conditions. Students requiring specific assistance such as classroom changes, alternative ways of note-taking, different classroom procedures, or alternative testing formats are urged to request the appropriate accommodations from the director of academic studies/registrar. The director of academic studies/registrar can advise students on other support services and resources, for example, diagnostic testing. Students must complete a request for accommodations using the form available from the director of academic studies/registrar or through MyGETS documenting their condition(s) through appropriate verification methods.

Participation Policy:

- All first-week assignments and activities must be completed, as assigned and on deadline, in order for a student to continue in the course.
- All collaborative work must be completed as assigned and on deadline, in order to receive any credit. (Collaborative processes cannot be done late: you can't bring a covered dish to a party that happened yesterday.)
- Individual writing assignments may receive partial credit if late: a full letter grade will be deducted during each 24-hour period after deadline. (So, an "A" assignment will receive a B during the first 24 hours of lateness; a C during the next 24 hours; and so on.)
- Please see below regarding emergencies.

Emergency:

Students may sometimes find themselves beset by an emergency that is likely to threaten progress in this course in ways that are hard to predict. In such a case, the student should contact the office of the Registrar without delay to document their emergency. Depending on the nature of the emergency, it may not be possible for the student to complete the course; however, the instructor will work with the student and the Registrar to determine what options are available (including an Incomplete for the course, an Extension for missing work, or other options).

Assignments:

This course includes four (4) Units: The Writings; The Latter Prophets; The Former Prophets; and The Pentateuch. Each Unit involves two assignments: one individual assignment interpreting biblical texts, and one collaborative small-group assignment constructing your "takeaway kit" bringing the fruits of the course toward your imagined ministries.

There are, then, a total eight (8) assignments: four (4) individual interpretive assignments, and four (4) collaborative “takeaway” assignments.

Grading:

Week One “Gospel” Assignment: 10%

Individual Interpretation Assignments: 40% (10% each)

Collaborative “Takeaway” Assignments: 40% (10% each)

Final Week “Gospel Reprise” Assignment: 10%

Evaluation rubrics will be available on course Moodle site when the semester begins.

Institutional Academic Policies

All students are required to abide by the academic policies detailed in the Academic Handbook for the current academic year. The following policies are of particular importance to the successful completion of one's coursework:

Writing

- Academic integrity and plagiarism: (See 19-20 Handbook, 12, 78-83) All professors are required to respond to all suspected incidents of academic dishonesty, especially plagiarism. Repeated incidents of plagiarism or academic dishonesty may result in dismissal from the school.
- Writing and citations: The Turabian Manual for Writers and the Chicago Manual of Style footnote/bibliography format provide the standard formats for all introductory courses. Basic information on these formats is available online here. In advanced courses an instructor may require another style guide appropriate to the discipline (such as APA). (19-20 Handbook, 84)
- Writing Support: The Writing Center at Garrett-Evangelical offers programs to support all students' theological research and writing. See <https://www.garrett.edu/student-life/student-services> "Writing Center" for more detailed information.

Attendance and Class Participation

- Inclusivity/Diversity: The basic commitments of the seminary to mutual love and searching for the truth in Christ lead to a principle that in the classroom and in course assignments, persons are always to be respected and ideas are to be freely discussed.... All participants in the teaching- learning process have an obligation to honor and respect varying perspectives on relevant issues. (See 19-20 Handbook, 9)
- Attendance and lateness policies: Attendance is required. Students who miss more than 20% of the class sessions (e.g., more than 2 classes in the weekly schedule, a proportionate amount for other class formats) should not expect to pass the class. (19-20 Handbook, 19)
- Some faculty may limit on the usage of electronic devices such as cell phones during class. At the least, all cell phones should be silenced during the whole of a class session.

Academic Accommodations

- Student accommodations for documented conditions should be developed and requested before the beginning of the semester. See the Accessibility, Special Needs, and Disabilities policy and process set out in the Academic Handbook (19-20 Handbook, 12). Such accommodations are developed in consultation with the Registrar.
- Extensions: For Masters students, extensions, if granted, are normally for four weeks following the last day of class in spring and fall semesters or the final due date for coursework for January and summer terms. Extensions may not exceed three months following the end of the term. (19- 20 Handbook, 20)
