Course Description

This course equips the participants to critically, (de/re)-constructively, and creatively engage the New Testament. The participants will examine key foundational issues in New Testament scholarship, closely read primary and secondary texts, and reflect upon the interpretative processes and ideologies of various (especially one's own) communities.

Learning Outcomes

Through reading, listening, discussing, reflecting, and writing, students – after successfully completing this course with a final course grade of B or above – will be able to:

- 1) Identify fundamental concepts, historical contexts, biblical criticisms/hermeneutics, and ideological issues and interpretations of the New Testament.
- 2) Comprehend the literary, theological, and socio-ethical contours of select New Testament texts.
- 3) Analyze the role of contexts and faith in influencing biblical interpretation. By doing so, this class seeks to assist the participants in evaluating contemporary appropriation(s) of the New Testament as a sacred text or an ancient document (depending upon one's perspective).
- 4) Synthesize an exegetical paper based on scaffolding learning process.

Required Materials

- 1) Dr. Stephen D. Moore, Revelation: An Introduction and Study Guide: Book of Torment, Book of Bliss. T&T Clark's Study Guides to the New Testament. 2021.
Amazon link: Dr. Moore's Required Book
- 2) The Bible: Please use your preferred translation and/or language.

3) Other materials are posted on the Moodle.

- Dr. Stephen D. Moore's Revealing the New Testament.

- Works by Dr. Margaret Aymer Oget. Dr. Kwok Pui-lan, and other scholars.

Course Requirements and Assessments

! All assessments must be submitted on their corresponding due dates. Students have one week to submit late submissions from the due date. After that one week, no assessment will be accepted, and the grade for lateness or the lack of submission will be zero (0) grade/point. For those who need extra time, please consult with the instructor before the due date.

1) Attendance: 10%

- Attendance is of utmost importance because communal learning is one of the hallmarks of theological education. Your presence and participation will assist in creating a learning environment in which we learn from each other.

- If you are unable to join (internet connection, family care, institutional demands, and other reasons), please inform the instructor ahead of time.

- You are allowed to have two absences, no questions asked. If you are going to be absent for more than this, then please inform the instructor. Beyond these two absences, there will be penalty for absence(s). One absence equals one-point grade deduction. Four absences will lead to failing grade. This is Garrett's academic policy.

- We will follow Garrett's blended synchronous policy.

2a) Ten (10) Weekly Reading Exercise (WRE): 40% [four points each]

- Each WRE worksheet will be posted online (Moodle). Please submit your responses through Turnitin. The worksheet's questions are based on the reading materials for that week.

- Please submit WRE(s) that correspond(s) to their assigned week(s) before class. Late submission will incur grade deduction: one point per day up to maximum deduction of five (5) points. Failure to submit will incur zero (0) point.

- To round up the grading, WRE 10 is free, which means free four (4) points.

2b) Five (5) Weekly Reading Exercise (20%) + Reflection Paper on Dr. Moore's Revelation book (20%)

- Write a three-page reflection paper that engages Dr. Moore's Revelation book. Here, engaging the book is not about summarizing his work. Rather, it requires these critical engagements:

- > Agree or disagree with some key statements and explain why
- > Identify something the author is implying or overlooking
- > Compare and contrast this author with other ideas/persons
- > Offer your own thoughts relative to the subject matter

- The due date for the reflection paper is on Oct 20, 2025, 11:59am (CST)

3) Scaffolded Exegetical Portfolio: 50% (combination of three assessments)

3a) Understanding One's Context: 10%

- Please choose 3 factors (out of 18) that determine your biblical interpretation as listed in Norman Gottwald's article. Please write 1-2 paragraph(s) per factor. These paragraphs should expound upon how they influence/determine your reading of the Bible/New Testament. There is no correct answer to this exercise. What is expected is your genuine, critical, and deep engagement with the factors. If you would like to write about influence(s) that are not listed in Gottwald's article, please do so.

- Please submit it through Turnitin. The due date is Sept 15th (Mon), 11:59pm CST.

- Please use professional formatting: Times New Roman font, size 12, one-inch border margin, and double-spaced.

- Grading Rubric:

- = Robust and clear exposition of the chosen factors: 60%
- = Grammar, syntax, and spelling: 20%
- = On-time submission: 20%

3b) Researching One's Topic: 20%

a. Please choose a biblical passage that you would like to write about. The biblical passage could be an entire pericope or a verse. Please write a short paragraph on the reason(s) for choosing this biblical passage. For example, you chose this particular biblical passage because it speaks to your current concern, your community's inquiry, a difficult sermon that you have heard before, and/or your academic interest.

b. Please choose three different Bible translations. Then compare and contrast their translations. If you know ancient biblical languages (Greek, Hebrew, and/or Aramaic), then please work with them. Write down their similarities and differences. Then, reflect upon their implications, such as what is being emphasized, debated, added, and/or neglected. This should be around one to two (1-2) paragraphs.

c. Please choose two commentaries to work with. Then, please list at least four (4) different types of information from the two commentaries (combined, 2-2 or 3-1) that you have learned in regard to your biblical passage. See below for approved list of commentaries. This should be around one to two (1-2) pages.

d. Please formulate your thesis or at least a trajectory of your thoughts. Please write one paragraph about the possible direction of your paper.

- Grading Rubric:

- = (a.) Clear exposition on your reason(s) for choosing the biblical passage: 10%
- = (b.) Convincing comparative analysis of three Bible translations: 10%
- = (c.) Relevant four different types of information from the commentaries: 40%
- = (d.) Thesis or trajectory of your work: 10%
- = Grammar, syntax, and spelling: 10%
- = On-time submission: 20%

- Please submit it through Turnitin. The due date is Oct 27th (Mon), 11:59pm CST.

- Please use professional formatting: Times New Roman font, size 12, one-inch border margin, and double-spaced.

3c) Exegetical Writing: 20%

- Please write a 5-6 pages exegetical paper on your chosen passage. An exegetical paper requires the following:

= Thesis: your argument (not a regurgitation or summary of another person's work)

= In addition to the two commentaries you have already worked with, please engage an article/book that speaks to your paper. Engaging the material expects these kinds of analyses:

- > Agree or disagree with some key statements and explain why
- > Identify something the author is implying or overlooking
- > Compare and contrast this author with other ideas/persons
- > Offer your own thoughts relative to the subject matter

- Please submit it through Turnitin. The due date is Dec 15th (Mon), 11:59pm CST.

- Please use professional formatting: Times New Roman font, size 12, one-inch border margin, and double-spaced.

- Grading Rubric:

- = Convincing thesis: 20%
- = Robust critical engagement with the reading materials: 50%
 - > Accurate and professionally formatted references
- = Grammar, syntax, and spelling: 10%
- = On-time submission: 20%

Grading Scale:

A: 94-100

A-: 90-93.9

Academic Policies

All students are required to abide by the academic policies detailed in the Academic Handbook for the current academic year. The following policies are of particular importance to the successful completion of one's coursework:

Writing

- Academic integrity and plagiarism: (See 2425 Handbook, 13, 69-75) All professors are required to respond to all suspected incidents of academic dishonesty, especially plagiarism. Repeated incidents of plagiarism or academic dishonesty may result in dismissal from the school.
- Writing and citations: The Turabian Manual for Writers and the Chicago Manual of Style footnote/bibliography format provide the standard formats for all introductory courses. Basic information on these formats is available online here. In advanced courses an instructor may require another style guide appropriate to the discipline (such as APA). (2425 Handbook, 71)
- Writing Support: The Writing Center at Garrett-Evangelical offers programs to support all students' theological research and writing. See <https://www.garrett.edu/student-life/student-services> "Writing Center" for more detailed information.

Attendance and Class Participation

- Inclusivity/Diversity: The basic commitments of the seminary to mutual love and searching for the truth in Christ lead to a principle that in the classroom and in course assignments, persons are always to be respected and ideas are to be freely discussed....All participants in the teaching-learning process have an obligation to honor and respect varying perspectives on relevant issues. (See 2425 Handbook, 10-11)
- Attendance and lateness policies: Attendance is required. Students who miss more than 20% of the class sessions (e.g., more than 2 classes in the weekly schedule, a proportionate amount for other class formats) should not expect to pass the class. (2425 Handbook, 20-21)
- Some faculty may limit on the usage of electronic devices such as cell phones during class. At the least, all devices should be silenced during the whole of a class session.

Academic Accommodations

- Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary is committed to providing the most accessible learning environment as possible for students with disabilities. Should you anticipate or experience disability-related barriers in the academic setting, please contact the Director of Academic Support and Student Thriving (melanie.baffes@garrett.edu or 847-866-3869) to get started with the established accommodation process. If you are a continuing student who has already established accommodations with Student Access, you should receive a copy of your access letter at the start of the semester when it is emailed to the faculty member of each course you are enrolled in. Please contact your instructors prior to the first class session so the instructor can work with you to implement your disability accommodations. Disability information, including academic accommodations as part of a student’s educational record, is confidential under FERPA regulations, so no one other than the access coordinator, Academic Affairs staff, and your professors will see your accommodation letter (2425 Handbook, 13).

- Extensions: For Masters students, extensions, if granted, are normally for four weeks following the last day of class in spring and fall semesters or the final due date for coursework for January and summer terms. Extensions may not exceed three months following the end of the term. (2425 Handbook, 21)
