A Note on Course Modality and the Syllabus

This course is being offered in a blended-synchronous modality. For a description of modalities see, https://mygets.garrett.edu/ICS/Courses_and_Syllabi/Course_Schedule/. A blended-synchronous course means students may take it either online or in person synchronously, however a student must decide which modality will be used as once a student appears online it will be counted as an online course.

This syllabus is exceptionally long and detailed, including step-by-step instructions for navigating the course in Moodle and detailed explanations of what the graded assignments entail. The syllabus will establish policies for the course while Moodle will provide much of the instruction and content. Please be certain to familiarize yourself thoroughly with the syllabus and Moodle before the start date of class. All the information you need is there. Prior to contacting the instructor about the course, check the syllabus and Moodle to see if the information you want is already there.

While every attempt will be made to follow the syllabus as written, given the changing nature of any given semester, especially during a pandemic, it may mean that some modifications to the course will be made along the way. In this case, the changes will be made on Moodle and emails will be sent to alert you to these changes. Please track your garrett.edu email accounts regularly for emails regarding the course.

Navigating the Course

Since this course will be taught on-line, please note the following:

- 1) Much of the course material will be posted on Moodle.
- 2) Note that each section consists of assignments and deadlines.
- 3) The course will be delivered through the Moodle software Garrett-Evangelical uses (<https://courses.garrett.edu>). Please be certain you can log on to Moodle before the course begins. Report any access issues to the registrar and the IT department. Once it is available, the course name will appear on your Moodle list.
 - a. When you click on the course name, you will see a screen with the title of the course and my contact information. As you scroll down, you will see that the content of the course is contained in several large boxes, each with the title of the topic.
 - b. The course is organized around a series of activities that are in each of these boxes. Within each box you will find a series of hyperlinks. These links will connect you to readings that are available online. You will have to click each of these to access the documents.
 - c. This syllabus will also be posted there and will explain the organization of the course and the activities that students are expected to accomplish in each section.

Technology Notes

Given the modality of this course, you will need to be certain you have sufficient technological ability to access and participate. This is the student's responsibility. The instructor will assume this and is not obligated to take technological difficulties into account when assessing the student's work.

Minimum technological requirements

- Web Browser – You will need the latest version of the web browser you are using (Internet Explorer, Firefox, Safari, Google Chrome, etc.). Not all browsers work equally well with Moodle, so you may need to experiment with them if you have difficulty using all the functions on the site.
- Operating System – In order to use the latest browser, you must have an operating system (Windows, Mac OS, etc.) that is up to date enough to handle it.
- Internet Connection – A high-speed internet connection that is sufficient to run streaming video with no difficulty will suffice. Usually, cable and DSL connections can do this. Dial up cannot. If your home internet connection is not sufficient to provide this kind of connection you will need to find access to a computer or internet service provider that does.
- Hardware – Keep in mind that you will also need sufficient computing power in terms of memory, speed, audio, and video for the different aspects of this course to work well. Make certain that you have all of these in place so that you can run the necessary software and fully participate on-line.
- MS Teams – Please make certain you have a stable enough connection to sustain MS Teams and familiarize yourself with it.

Academic Policies

All students are required to abide by the academic policies detailed in the Academic Handbook for the current academic year. The following policies are of particular importance to the successful completion of one's coursework:

Writing

- Academic integrity and plagiarism: (See AY 2324 Handbook, 13, 69-75) All professors are required to respond to all suspected incidents of academic dishonesty, especially plagiarism. Repeated incidents of plagiarism or academic dishonesty may result in dismissal from the school.
- Writing and citations: The Turabian Manual for Writers and the Chicago Manual of Style footnote/bibliography format provide the standard formats for all introductory courses. Basic information on these formats is available online here. In advanced courses an instructor may require another style guide appropriate to the discipline (such as APA). (AY 2324 Handbook, 74-75)
- Writing Support: The Writing Center at Garrett-Evangelical offers programs to support all students' theological research and writing. To find out more, see the Writing Center Moodle site: <<https://courses.garrett.edu/course/view.php?id=1137>>. Contact the Writing Center for more detailed information <writing.center@garrett.edu>.
- The use of AI: The use of AI includes, but is not limited to, such activities as: research, generating first drafts of assignments or creating outlines (through tools such as ChatGPT), translation from one language to another, and editing, polishing, or revising (through tools such as spell check, grammar check, and Power Point designer). The extent to which the use of AI is allowable in developing course assignments is determined by the faculty member in each of their courses. Faculty may prohibit the use of AI tools on assignments, allow the use of certain tools with appropriate acknowledgment by the student as to which tools were used, or allow the use of some tools with no acknowledgment by the students that the tools were used.

Attendance and Class Participation

Inclusivity/Diversity: The basic commitments of the seminary to mutual love and searching for the truth in Christ lead to a principle that, in the classroom and in course assignments, persons are always to be respected and ideas are to be freely discussed. All participants in the teaching-learning process have an obligation to honor and respect varying perspectives on relevant issues. (AY 2324 Handbook, 10)

Attendance and lateness policies: Attendance is required. Students who miss more than 20% of the class sessions (e.g., more than 2 classes in the weekly schedule, or a proportionate amount for other class formats) should not expect to pass the class. (AY 2324 Handbook, 20)

All cell phones should be silenced during the whole of a class session and any other IT should not disrupt the class.

Academic Accommodations

Student accommodations for documented conditions should be developed and requested before the beginning of the semester. See the Accessibility, Special Needs, and Disabilities policy and process set out in the Academic Handbook (AY 2324 Handbook, 13) and the Academic Accommodations section on <https://www.garrett.edu/life-at-garrett/student-services/accessfor-students-with-disabilities/>.

Extensions: For Masters students, extensions, if granted, are normally for four weeks following the last day of class in spring and fall semesters or the final due date for coursework for January and summer terms. Extensions may not exceed three months following the end of the term. (AY 2324 Handbook, 21)

Course Policies

1. Excellence in Writing: Even though this is an UM Studies course, everything you have learned about good writing style still counts. Obtuse or inelegant writing in your essays will be reason for a reduced grade. If you need help with your writing, please contact the instructor.
2. Intellectual Virtue: We are striving not only to learn about a subject, but to sharpen our abilities to think critically. To do this, we must practice intellectual virtue by being open-minded, straightforward, and thoughtful in our spoken and written work. We show our Christian scholarship not only by considering issues and questions that are central to our faith, but by being careful and respectful in our treatment of the authors of our texts, the ideas we discuss, and the thoughts of our fellow classmates.
3. Late Work: Late work without the instructor's written permission (via email) is not accepted in this course.

Course Description

This course is designed to provide students with an opportunity to become knowledgeable about the origins of the Wesleyan tradition and its expressions in the United Methodist Church. It explores the roots of the movement in the Anglican Church and the Wesleyan Revival of the 18th century, the history of the institutional and theological development of American Methodist/Evangelical United Brethren tradition through the 19th century. Particular attention will be given to the issue of slavery.

Course objectives

By the end of the course, the student should have a better understanding of the following:

- the sermons of John Wesley
- the hymns of Charles Wesley
- the Methodist heritage and tradition
- the diverse streams of tradition that feed into the United Methodist Church
- the process and development of the Methodist/Wesleyan doctrinal heritage in the United States

Written Assignments

1. The student will be required to read and outline each of the sermons listed in the Outler/Heitzenrater Anthology. Be sure NOT to cut and paste. Paraphrase and summarize! The sermons will become the substance of the final paper. The outline should contain the following: sermon title; date preached; the main theological themes (e.g. grace, nature, sin, nature of humanity, nature of God, etc.); a succinct one or two sentence summary of the sermon; and a paraphrased outline of the main points and sub-points. Each sermon should take less than one typed (single spaced, 12 pt. type) page and each sermon should begin on a new page. A sample outline is found below along with a rubric.
Be sure to include the outlines in a single document and upload the document via Turnitin on the Moodle page for this class. There is a separate Turnitin portal assigned to each group of sermons. Please note that the first group of sermons should include outlines for the sermons from the Anthology plus the sermon "On Predestination" (found on Moodle). See the rubric below (25% of final grade).
Since this a J-term class you are encouraged to get started on these as soon as you are able. If you have any questions about the content or format of your first outline feel free to email Dr. Bryant with the outline to make sure you are on the right tract. Otherwise, if you follow the example provide you will do well.
2. Paper #1- Using Heitzenrater as your source, write a paper on the following: What was the mission of Methodism? What was the importance of conference, classes, and deeds to the mission of Methodism? In what ways did the mission change or reinforce Wesley's understanding of Anglican ecclesiology? To be submitted at Turnitin on Moodle (1200 words, +-10%, 20% of final grade).
3. Paper #2- Write a research paper using the primary documents in The Methodist Experience in America looking at the issues of racialization of all the people of color (only Africans and African Americans). The book index will be helpful to identify the relevant documents to the topic. Based on these documents what were some of the issues surrounding racialization in the 19th century American Methodism? Be sure to analyze the material as to its social as well as theological content and cite examples in support of your case (1200 words, +-10%, 20% of final grade).
5. Paper #3- Using the outlined sermons, the Runyon and Osinski texts, write a research paper on Wesley's Scripture way of salvation, the new creation, and the role sacraments play in this journey, i.e. the way of salvation and its relationship to sacramental practice. Make sure to include copious sermon citations and demonstrate your reading of the Runyon text (1600 words, 25% of final grade).

Due dates TBD.

Written assignments are to be submitted to Turnitin on Moodle according to due dates found there. Please note the following:

1. They must be in a Microsoft Word or compatible format.
2. They must be submitted before midnight on the due date.
3. The file MUST EXACTLY be named using the following format:
StudentLastName_FirstInitial_DENOM603X_J24_Paper#
e.g. Bryant_B_DENOM603X_J22_Paper#1
StudentLastName_FirstInitial_DENOM603X_J24_Outlines#

The Witness of the Spirit: Discourse II

Sermon # 11

1767

Theological Theme: Assurance

Summary: The testimony of the Holy Spirit, that we are children of God, is both direct and indirect. The argument against the idea of direct testimony of the Holy Spirit to our spirit is contrary to Christian experience and to Scripture.

- I. No one who believes Scripture can doubt the importance of the witness of the Spirit.
 1. Two dangers: Denial leads to religious formality; Failure to understand it leads to enthusiasm.
 2. Part of the grand testimony God has given the Methodists.
- II. What is the witness of the Spirit?
 1. The testimony given by the Spirit of God to our spirit that we are children of God.
 2. An inward impression of the soul, whereby the Spirit of God immediately and directly witness to my spirit that I am a child of God.
 3. Spirit works upon the soul by immediate influence that one is forgiven.
 4. The testimony of the Spirit is acknowledged by all [disputing] parties.
 5. No real testimony of the Spirit without fruit of the Spirit- love, joy, peace, patience, gentleness, goodness
 6. Outward sin destroys the fruit
 7. Point in question is direct testimony of the Spirit.
- III. There is direct testimony of the Spirit.
 1. When our spirit is conscious of the fruits of the Spirit, it infers that we are children of God.
 2. You have received the Spirit of Adoption, whereby we cry Abba, Father.
 3. The testimony of the Spirit of God must be prior to the testimony of our own spirit.
 4. Not only to children of God, but to all who are convinced of sin.
 5. Everyone who denies the existence of the testimony of the Spirit, denies justification by faith.
 6. Experience of the children of the world confirms the experience of the children of God.
 7. The testimony of the Spirit precedes the love of God, holiness, and our awareness of it.
- IV. Answers to objections
 1. This doctrine is founded in Scripture, therefore experience confirms it.
 2. A scriptural doctrine is no worse, though men abuse it to their own destruction.
 3. A fruit of the Spirit is the witness of the Spirit.
 4. Witness of the Spirit is important to profession of faith
 5. Spiritual gifts are not the same as bearing witness.
 6. Twofold witness of the Spirit guards against delusion.
 7. We can be tried to the point of failure to keep our filial confidence in God without the direct witness of the Spirit.
 8. None of the main objections weakens the evidence that the Spirit of God both directly and indirectly testifies that we are children of God.
