Course Description
Welcome to History II. This course will introduce you to the relatively recent history of Christianity, from the late Middle Ages (beginning around 1500) to the present time. In the last 500 years, Christianity has developed a wide range of expressions, most of which still exist today. This course will help you better understand how these varied traditions took shape and how they, in turn, have shaped modern church and society. Special attention will be given to the particular contexts in which Christian thought and practice have developed.

Learning Outcomes
- To appreciate the long history of the Church and its many stories.
- To interpret the dynamics of different times and places.
- To analyze why things happened as they did (and now are as they are);
- To recognize historical trends (and to identify them when they are repeated).
- To interpret the present in light of the past, noting both similarities and differences.
- To articulate aspects of Christian history as they are relevant to particular contemporary contexts, and to interpret those aspects for lay audiences.
- To see "the Church" in all its diversity (of time, place, culture, sub-culture, rank, ordination status, ethnicity, race, gender, class, and so on).
- To employ the best resources from the past to lead the church of the future.
- To be enriched by the stories of those who have gone before.
- To develop broader empathy for people (historical or contemporary) in circumstances that are unfamiliar to us.
- To exercise our abilities to think critically and communicate clearly.

Weekly Schedule

All work for this course will be done asynchronously. That is, there is no one time during the week when students must log on. Instead, all assignments are due by 5pm Chicago time on Thursdays, but those assignments can be done at any time throughout the week.

The following tasks should be completed no later than 5 p.m. Central Time on the date listed on the syllabus: Doing the assigned readings and watching any videos listed, listening to the lectures, and posting to the discussion forum. Students must post a minimum of once a week on the discussion forum.

Required Texts

- Justo González, The Story of Christianity, Volume II: The Reformation to the Present Day (2010). ISBN: 978-0061855894, $27.99 at Amazon.com. Available as an e-book at Styberg Library.
- Dale Irwin & Scott Sunquist, History of the World Christian Movement, Volume II: Modern Christianity from 1454 – 1800 (2012). ISBN: 978-1570759895, $50.00 at Amazon.com. Available as an e-book at Styberg Library.
- Other required readings, podcasts, and links will be posted on Moodle.

Assignments & Grading

Participation (40%)

In order to fully engage this course, it is important that you actively participate so that your classmates can learn from you and you from them. The discussion forum on Moodle will be the main avenue for this engagement. The minimum expectation for participation in the online discussion forum is one substantial post per week (approximately 300 words, or about 3 minutes if you are posting a video or an audio file). All posts should engage the previous posts of other students (unless, of course, you post first) and should not be constructed as stand-alone reports. Posts are due at 5 p.m. CST on the date listed for the topics. Quantity and quality will both be considered when assigning a participation grade.

Essays (30% x 2 = 60%)

Two 5-7 page essays will be required, one as a mid-term and the other as a final. They are due 5 p.m. CST on the dates listed below. Details, guidelines and rubrics for all essays will be posted on Moodle. Please see also the Style Sheet posted on Moodle for an overview of citations and other stylistic issues.

Final grades for the course are determined by the following scale:

A: 100-93%	C: 73-77%
A-: 90-92%	C-: 70-72%
B+: 88-89%	D+: 68-69%
B: 83-87%	D: 63-67%
B-: 80-82%	D-: 60-62%
C+: 78-79%	F: 59% and below

Policies and Procedures

1. Careful language is especially important in an online course. Because online interactions play out differently than face-to-face interactions, some extra guidelines for discussion will be helpful:
    - In an online discussion, you have fewer words with which to make your point. This makes your reflection prior to posting and your choice of words all the more important. Everyone benefits from thoughtful discussion posts, so please take the time to express yourself clearly, and please make sure that your post contributes to the flow of discussion. Also, because your spelling and grammar convey the seriousness that you bring to the task, please proof-read your posts before submitting them.
    - The online discussion is the main collaborative activity of the course, so your classmates are depending on you, and you on them. Please participate regularly, on schedule, and in response to the question and to previous postings.
    - Without the non-verbal clues we have when we talk with someone face-to-face, comments can be misinterpreted. Please make sure your posts are clear, especially when you are making a contentious statement. We will tackle difficult topics, and we will disagree, but we must do this in a respectful and constructive manner.

2. Late papers and other assignments will be accepted without penalty only in severe and documented situations. Please plan your work so that an acute emergency (e.g. brief illness, computer problems, pastoral emergency) does not interfere with submitting your work on time. Unexcused late assignments will be docked a full letter grade (i.e., 10 percentage points) for every day they are late. Any portion of a day late counts as a full day, so if a paper is due at 5 p.m. and you submit it at 5.30 p.m., your grade will be docked by one full letter grade (e.g., 90% becomes 80%). Quizzes must be completed according to schedule as Moodle is programmed to make them unavailable after the due date. Any quizzes not taken on time will receive a score of zero.

3. Regarding plagiarism, please familiarize yourself with Garrett-Evangelical policies as found in the Academic Handbook. It is especially important to make sure you understand what constitutes plagiarism so that you do not inadvertently violate the policy. All written work will undergo an online plagiarism check.

Garrett-wide Academic Policies

This course follows all school academic policies and procedures, which can be accessed in their entirety on the Registrar section of MyGETS at this link: https://mygets.garrett.edu/ICS/Registrar_and_Advising/Common_Syllabus_Policies.jnz

A couple of these policies that I want to highlight:

• Inclusivity & Diversity: The basic commitments of the seminary to mutual love and searching for the truth in Christ lead to a principle that in the classroom and in course assignments, persons are always to be respected and ideas are to be freely discussed…. All participants in the teaching-learning process have an obligation to honor and respect varying perspectives on relevant issues.
(See 19-20 Handbook, 9)

• Attendance and lateness policies: Attendance is required. Students who miss more than 20% of the class sessions (e.g., more than 2 classes in the weekly schedule, a proportionate amount for other class formats) should not expect to pass the class. (19-20 Handbook, 19)
